Please consider...

Etiquette for classes and excursions:

- Please do not be late.
- Do stay at home when you are feeling sick and let your teacher know.

- In case you have a cold or other symptoms of sickness and do want to join the class, we highly recommend you wear a mask during classes to protect each other.

- Have fun and enjoy the classes!

What happens after the German Intensive Courses?

- Everyone has to take the official C-test online (main exception: courses for absolute beginners and Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, Polish and Turkish language courses).
- Before you take the C-test you have to register on our website with your Münster university e-mail address and password → welcome letter international office!
- The instructions can be found in a PDF document on our homepage.
- You can choose any course you would like to attend and apply for a place.

What happens after the German Intensive Courses?

- For questions please contact the respective language coordinator!
