

Public Notion of Crime and Law in East Asia

Conference Program

Senatssaal im Schloss, Schlossplatz 2, Münster
3rd September - 5th September, 2012

3rd September (Mon), 2012

9:00 - 9:15 Welcome Speech by Dr. Marianne Ravenstein, the Vice President of WWU

9:15 - 9:30 Opening Remarks by Professor Tomiya

Session 1, Chair: Professor Wittern

9:30 - 10:10 Liu Xinning (劉欣寧, Han History, Academia Sinica)
"Collective Responsibility of 里 in the Qin and Han Dynasties"
Commentator: Itaru Tomiya

10:10 - 10:50 Tatsuro Sato (佐藤達郎, History of Ancient China, Kwansei Gakuin University)
"A Commoner's Shooting at a Palace Gate and Ying Shao's Argument over his Punishment toward the End of the Later Han Period"
Commentator: Kiyoshi Miyake

10:50 - 11:10 Coffee Break

11:10 - 11:50 Annette Kieser (Chinese Archaeology, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster)
"Looted Tombs: Strategies against Tomb Raiding in Imperial China"
Commentator: Monique Nagel-Angermann

11:50 - 12:30 Kiyoshi Miyake (宮宅潔, History of Ancient China, Kyoto University)
"Crime and Impurity in Early China"
Commentator: Xu Shihong

12:30 - 14:00 Lunch Break

Session 2, Chair: Dr. Nagel-Angermann

14:00 - 14:40 Ryuichi Kogachi (古勝隆一, Chinese Classics, Kyoto University)
"Some Remarks on Liu Yuxi's 劉禹錫 Notion of Law"
Commentator: Reinhard Emmerich

14:40 - 15:20 Reinhard Emmerich (Tang Literature, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster)
"Does Law Matter in Yanshi jiaxun 顏氏家訓?"
Commentator: Ryuichi Kogachi

15:20 - 15:40 Coffee Break

15:40 - 16:20 Zhao Jing (趙晶, History of Chinese Law, China University of Political Science and Law)
"Public Notion of Crime in Tang and Song Periods"
Commentator: Jonas Polfuß

16:20 - 17:00 Kerstin Storm (Tang Literature, Kyoto University)
"Decisions on Crimes in the pan 判 of Yuan Zhen 元稹 (779-831)"
Commentator: Tatsuro Sato

4th September (Tue), 2012

Session 3, Chair: Professor Ito

- 9:00 - 9:40 Mako Nishikawa (西川真子, Gender History in China, Nagoya University of Foreign Studies)
"Violence between Husband and Wife in Modern China: A Discussion Centering on Abuse Cases"
Commentator: Zhao Jing
- 9:40 - 10:20 Christian Wittern (Chan Buddhism, Kyoto University)
"Some Observations Concerning Rules and the Violation of Rules in Chan/Zen Buddhism"
Commentator: Michael Höckelmann
- 10:20 - 10:40 Coffee Break
- 10:40-11:20 Jonas Polfuß (Tang Literature, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster)
"Social Crime and Social Sanctions in Mid-Tang Letter Writing"
Commentator: Christian Wittern
- 11:20 - 12:00 Michael Höckelmann (Tang History, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster)
"Castration as Death Penalty Mitigation during the Northern Dynasties"
Commentator: Takao Ito
- 12:00 - 14:00 Lunch Break

Session 4, Chair: Professor Miyake

- 14:00 - 14:40 Itaru Tomiya (冨谷至, Legal History of China, Kyoto University)
"The Conception of Fornication: From the Han Code to the Tang Code"
Commentator: Kerstin Storm
- 14:40 - 15:20 Xu Shihong (徐世虹, Legal History of China, China University of Political Science and Law)
"Public Offenses in Ancient Chinese Law"
Commentator: Mako Nishikawa
- 15:20-15:40 Coffee Break
- 15:40 - 16:20 Takao Ito (伊藤孝夫, Legal History of Japan, Kyoto University)
"The Moral Crimes in Japanese Legal History"
Commentator: Liu Xinning
- 16:20-17:00 Monique Nagel-Angermann (History of Medieval China, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster)
"Remarks on Law and Crime in Official Tang Representations of the States of the Shiliuguo Period"
Commentator: Annette Kieser
- 17:00 - 17:10 Concluding Words by Professor Emmerich

5th September (Wed), 2012

Excursion for the conference speakers