

Random evolution of ladders and random Cantor functions

SERGUEI POPOV

Abstract:

We consider random evolution of broken lines consisting of horizontal and vertical segments and restricted on the positive quarter plane. In the discrete setting this is related to a generalization of exclusion process. In continuous setting, the limiting object (which we call random Cantor function) has certain interesting properties, which are similar to those of deterministic Cantor functions.