Data protection notice

The personal data you provide in course evaluations is anonymised before it is stored and processed, i.e. anonymisation makes it impossible to conclude your identity based on your responses. In addition to your opinion on the course in question, you are asked to provide additional data for statistical purposes, e.g. your major, semester, gender and age.

Under certain circumstances, however, this data could suffice to identify participants of the evaluation. If you are concerned your identity would be revealed on account of the limited size and/or the specific composition of the respective course, you may decide whether or not to answer certain questions.

If you are required to fill in blank fields in the questionnaire, please note that your handwriting or the content of your responses may allow conclusions to be drawn regarding your identity.

Teacher and teaching

The course provided me with a good overview of the topics covered.

The teacher often used examples that helped me understand the course content.

In my opinion the teacher responded adequately to students' questions and comments.

The course content was presented in a way that aroused my interest.

During the course I was able to follow the structure at all times.

In my opinion the teacher's time management in the course was good.

The course made me look forward to deeper involvement in certain course content in the future.

The course content was presented in such a way that I was able to understand it well.

The course content was presented in such a way that interconnections between the topics covered became clear to me.

I received concrete information regarding post-preparation of the course content.

How many hours did you spend every week on preparation and post-preparation for the course?
